

INCLUSIVITY AND GROWTH in the building industry

BRUCE Mactier has grown to be one of the largest residential and commercial building design firms in the Goulburn Valley.

Their expertise has been used across a broad section of Victoria both in conducting the design component and then following up by project managing, letting contracts and serving a cross section of functions in getting the building works complete.

Bruce Mactier have worked on small dwellings through to large, multimillion-dollar commercial projects and everything in between. They have the capability to work with clients on small residential extensions as well as large palatial new builds.
